The RED MAN IS CELEBRATED.

The red man is the symbol of a people and a race that has been the victim of civilization. It is in the hands of the white man that the red man's fate is held. The red man is the victim of the white man's greed, and the red man can only be saved by the white man. The red man is the victim of the white man's ignorance, and the red man can only be saved by the white man. The red man is the victim of the white man's cruelty, and the red man can only be saved by the white man.

The red man is the symbol of a people and a race that has been the victim of civilization. It is in the hands of the white man that the red man's fate is held. The red man is the victim of the white man's greed, and the red man can only be saved by the white man. The red man is the victim of the white man's ignorance, and the red man can only be saved by the white man. The red man is the victim of the white man's cruelty, and the red man can only be saved by the white man.

The red man is the symbol of a people and a race that has been the victim of civilization. It is in the hands of the white man that the red man's fate is held. The red man is the victim of the white man's greed, and the red man can only be saved by the white man. The red man is the victim of the white man's ignorance, and the red man can only be saved by the white man. The red man is the victim of the white man's cruelty, and the red man can only be saved by the white man.

The red man is the symbol of a people and a race that has been the victim of civilization. It is in the hands of the white man that the red man's fate is held. The red man is the victim of the white man's greed, and the red man can only be saved by the white man. The red man is the victim of the white man's ignorance, and the red man can only be saved by the white man. The red man is the victim of the white man's cruelty, and the red man can only be saved by the white man.